Presentation
Citizens, Saints, and Soldiers: Strategies for Researching Baptists and the Civil War

Dr. Bruce Gourley

With a wealth of Baptist Civil War library and archive materials to choose from, the academic researcher's most daunting task may be asking the question "Where do I begin?" This session provides tips and techniques from a researcher's perspective about how to conduct academic inquiry on Baptists and the Civil War. Attention is given to both digital and in-person research possibilities.

2:00 pm – Session E
3:00 pm Digitizing Dixie: Strategies for Placing Baptist Civil War Collections Online

Moderator: Kent Millwood

The broad audience appeal of Baptist Civil War archival collections can make these materials primary candidates for digitization projects. Presenters in this session discuss three different ways of digitizing Civil War holdings, highlighting advantages and challenges of each.
